Sharon Leah Day as Leah's Legends

Leah's Legends' originals are hand made in the San Juan Mountains of northern New Mexico. Each item is unique. They are products of a rich background in archaeology by Leah, the artist. The special red clays are collected from many areas, including the Southwest. Medicine shield symbols are used, as well as replications of eagle feathers made from hand-dyed porcelain. Pheasant feathers are used to enhance the designs. The metal glazes are 22k white & yellow gold as well as copper.
