

Marcia McNamee

Whether it's her ornate crosses or signature angels, El Paso artist Marcia McNamee designs clay creations that are distinctively one-of-a-kind pieces. In addition to angels & crosses, Marcia is quickly becoming known for her Padres & Semoras.

As of late, she has begun creating lively animals Of all sorts. Frogs & dogs have a special place in her collection. Every piece is handcrafted by Marcia in her El Paso studio.

Art is a second career for Marcia, who retired in 1995, after 30 years of teaching. When she is not sculpting, she is traveling with her husband, Mike, spoiling her Grandchildren, volunteering for charities, gardening & cheering for UTEP Miners.
