

Ann Smith

Ann Smith's glorious watercolors have been winning awards consistently for more than 20 years. Trained at UCLA to be a biological illustrator, her style is a unique blend of technical discipline and emotional exuberance. Her paintings seem to fall somewhere between sensual and spiritual. Ann's large scale paintings are recognized as stunning centerpieces in countless private and corporate collections. The National Watercolor Society, Western Federation of Watercolor Societies, Rocky Mountain National and Southwestern Watercolor Society have all exhibited and honored her work. She is an experienced juror and lecture demonstrator who has been featured in Southwest Art Magazine.
